HAMBURG BELLE'S FLIGHT

BEATS JOCUND AND ALAN-A-DALE IN FAST TIME.

Shortnese Wins the Russet Handicap From Carbuncle-Knight of Harlem a Good Thing in the Steeplechase-All Winners at Sheepshead Bay Backed.

Hamburg Belle won the Flight Stakes, for two-year-olds and upward, seven fur-longs. Futurity course, at Sheepshead Bay yesterday afternoon in a manner that con-yinced turimen of the great filly's return to last year's form. She picked up 11s pounds, giving weight to all but the two-year-old St. Bellane. Alan-a-Dale and Hamburg Belle opened equal favorites at 8 to 5, but the Ham-burg filly received considerable more support and closed the choice at 7 to 5. St. Bellane was well backed at 4 to 1, while the Drake entry, Jocund, an added starter, and Orly II., were the medium for a big plunge in the show books. Alan-a-Dale made the running to the elbow, with Hamburg Belle and Mineola close behind him. When Lyne finally cut the Belle loose she went to the front, with Alan-a-Dale under a fruitless drive to overhaul her. At the end the Belle won handily by a length in the fast time of 1:25, while Jocund, coming from the rear guard with a fine turn of speed, ran over Alan-a-Dale and beat him a length and a half for the place. Mineola was fourth, beat-

The other stake feature was the Russet Handicap, for three-year-olds and upward, at a mile and a half on the grass. It was an open betting affair, every horse in the race receiving support. Carbuncle was a receding favorite at 2 to 1, while Shorthose went back a point to threes, as Major Dainger-field, Dalesman and Rosetint were all backed down. It was a pretty struggle in the run up the back stretch, and when the field had rounded the far turn it looked as if Carbuncle would be successful. But Odom came through on the rail with Shorthose, who won, ridden out, by a length and a half in 2:34. Carbuncle hung on to the place, beating Major Dainger-field a length. The others were badly beaten. E. R. Thomas's Niblick, 13 to 5 favorite, was victorious in the first race, for two-year-olds at five and a half furlongs, Futurity course. He stood a drive from Redfern and won by a length, Workman, who was in front to the last furlong, running second, two lengths before John W. The latter was closing strongly, but could not quite get up. Sir Vorhies, 5 to 1, was third. Malden, who opened at 7 to 5 and went back to 4 to 1, ran out of the course and was pulled up, his rider explaining the performance to the satisfaction the stewards after the race. The time of the race for the short course was 4:04 2-5. John E. Madden's two-year-old Councilman carrying ninety-two pounds and a hot fav-orite, won the fourth race, for all ages, at a mile. He made a runaway of it and won galloping, in the fast time of 1:39 3-5. Sonoma to 1, secured the place from James R. YACHTS RACE FOR AUTUMN CUPS. GOSSIP OF THE RACETRACK. Cornelius Vanderbilt's Rainbow Beat

Yankee and Virginia-Neola Wins. Rear Commodore Cornelius Vanderbilt's Rainbow, George M. Pynchon's Neola and Trenor L. Park's Mimosa III. were the win-ners of the New York Yacht Club's Autumn cups. The races were sailed on the Sound yesterday in a fresh breeze from the south southwest. The results were rather a surprise. The Yankee has won nearly every-thing this season, and the Weetamoe has beaten the Neola very often, but yesterday the tables were turned on these boats. The regatta committee, S. Nicholson Kane, A. Cary Smith and Paul Eve Stephenson, were on board J. L. Mott's steam yacht Candida. The preparatory signal was made at 12:20 o'clock, and five minutes later the small sloops were sent off. The Spasm led, with Mimosa next and Anoatok handicapped 4 seconds. The larger classes were started at 12:30. The Weetamoe was first over the line, followed by the Yankee, Rainbow, Virginia and Neola. The last named was handicapped 17 seconds. The first mark for all was off Prospect Point, and this leg was a broad reach, with booms to starboard. When out in the Sound the wind was a little more from the south and spinnakers were carried, the Yankee being the first to set hers. The Virginia, sailed by W. K. Vanderbilt, took the lead on this leg, and the Neola, although she started two minutes after the Weetamoe, gained some of that time. The times taken at the first mark were: Virginia, 1:05:00; Yankee, 1:06:15; Rainbow, 1:07:45; Spasm, 1:88:30; Weetamoe, 1:08:40; Anoatok, 1:00:35; Neola, 1:10:03; Mimosa III., 1:10:41.

The next mark for the 70 and 60 footers was off Shippan Point and the small sloops went over to Centre Island buoy. It was another reach and the Virginia and Yankee made a close race, while the Neola gained some more on the Weetamoe. The times taken at the second mark were: Virginia, 1:55:05; Yankee, 1:35:25; Rainbow, 1:35:25.

It was windward work home. The Rainbow at once tacked in toward the Long Island shore, and the Virginia and Yankee made several short tacks. Mr. Vanderbilt held the Yankee under the Virginia's lee, and try as he would Mr. Maxwell could not work his boat out. The Weetamoe succeeded in drawing away from the Neola somewhat, but not by enough to win the race. 4 seconds. The larger classes were started at 12:30. The Weetamoe was first over the

the Features. A good field has been named to start in the Omnium Handicap at a mile and a furlong to-day. In spite of his poor races of late, McChesney still has top weight, although this time it is only 120 pounds. Gunfire has 118, while Dainty, who is in fine trim just now, gets in with 115, her stable mate, Proper, having 107. Dolly Spanker looks dangerous with 102, while Colonial Girland Hurstbourne both have a chance. John E. Madden's Waterside, who has won his last two races, will probably rule the choice in the Golden Rod Stakes for two-year-olds, with Oiseau, the Western colt, a dangerous factor. First Mason, who took Delhi's measure recently, has top weight in the handicap for all ages at a mile, and must give pounds to Hurstbourne, Ormonde's Right and Wild Thyme. Belle Dixon, Fleur de Marie, Flinders, Delusion and Princess Eris are the best of the two-year-old fillies named for the first race. The steeplechase yesterday was remarkable for the fact that out of nine starters nobody fell. The race was very fast, the time, 4:04 2-5, being within 1 2-5 seconds of he best record over the course, made by Rising Sun, 152 pounds, in August, 1902. Mr. Story, owner of Knight of Harlem, the winner, did not bet a dollar on him.

Hamburg Belle established a new record,

-1:25-for the Flight Stakes and came within a fifth of a second of equalling the track record of 1:24 4-5, made by Letola last week. The race was first run in 1887, the former winners eing Stuyvesant, Carroll, Britannic, Kingston (twice), Tenny, Dr. Hasbrouck, Clifford (twice), Dorian, Requital, The Friar, Bendoran, Heliobas, Voter, Smoke and Leonora

Loring. John E. Madden had his checks down on Councilman in the fourth event. The Approval colt was a streak of lightning and could peen extended. As it was, Crimmins was easing him up in the final sixteenth. The Haymans placed a large commission on ames R. Keene's Veto while the horses were at the post. I., Sept. 8.—The Herreshoffs have received an order from Frank Croker, son of Richard Croker, for an auto boat to make a speed of 24 and 25 miles an hour. Work has been commenced on the new rac-ing craft in the boat shop, where Mr. Croker had a view of the job to-day, when the frames were being set up. The boat is to be ready for racing before winter sets in, and Mr. Croker was present while a test was being made of the engine for the boat. While the craft under construction is not as large as Nat Herreshoff's Swiftsure, it is expected she will surpass the latter in speed. expected she will surpass the latter in speed. The boat for Mr. Croker is designed for a length of 45 feet, with an exceedingly light draught, and it is to be fitted with an autoengine of the Mercedes pattern and of 20 horse-power. The Swiftsure has a steam engine of 100 horse-power.

The new craft will be different from the Swiftsure in the matter of planking, as it is to be joined flush instead of with lapped strakes. There is to be seating accommodation for four persons and a space for the engineer besides. A year ago Frank Croker had an auto boat constructed at the shops of the Chase Pulley Company in this city from designs of Charles F. Herreshoff 2d.

TIVERTON'S CHARTER OAK. Original Favorite Takes Big Stake After an Unlucky Draw.

HARTFORD, Sept. 8 .- Tiverton in the early betting was a strong favorite for the big Charter Oak Stake at Charter Oak Park this afternoon until he drew the eleventh and outside position. This was regarded as a serious handicap with so large a field of start ers, and Sweet Marie, in fourth position was picked as a likely winner.

Although each heat was a race, so far as After Hamburg Belle won the Flight Stakes the management of the track was concerned, n the pools the betting was on the standing so impressively yesterday, a representative of the Paget stable hunted up Newton Benning-ton and made a proposition for a match race of the horses at the end of the three heats Strong gained some followers after taking between the crack Hamburg filly and Beldame, to decide the question of which is the champion the first heat, and his price went up, but Tiv three-year-old filly. While horsemen gener-ally have conceded this honor to Beldame, beand after Tiverton took the second heat the talent saw nothing but him in the race. the talent saw nothing but him in the race. Dr. Strong came in under a drive in the second heat but was unable to overtake Tiverton, and the third heat was Tiverton's almost without an effort.

There was a crowd of 12,000 persons at the park and there was a scramble of drenched men and women for the cars when the races were called on account of a heavy thunderstorm, before the 2:12 trot was finished. This was the first race called, but all three were sandwiched, so that the others were finished when the first was left with four heats trotted.

2:12 class, trotting: purse $1,200 (unfinished): cause of her wonderful record this season, it is understood that Sydney Paget and his clever trainer, Jack Joyner, believe that Hamburg Belle, now in her best form for the first time this year, can take the measure of the famous daughter of Octagon—Bella Donna. For that reason they sent an informal challenge to Bennington for a special sweepstakes at one mile, but were surprised to find that the owner of Beldame was not particularly anxious to arrange such an event. When asked about the matter after the races, Bennington "I shall dodge Hamburg Belle. It is my intention to start Beldame in only two more races this season, both stake engagements. She has had a long, hard campaign, and I do Time—2:12's, 2:11's, 2:12's, 1:15's, 2:15's, 2 not care to ask too much of her. A. C. Fiske Wins Gold Cup at Orangeburg Races.

ORANGEBURG, N. Y., Sept. 8 .- Rockland county's sixty-first annual race meeting attracted another great throng to the Mountain View Driving Park here to-day. The crowd filled every seat on the stands and overflowed to the track, where they caused the stoppage of the races for a while. A. C. Fiske, the New York Speedway driver, with Jim Kennedy, the noted parer, won the amateur contest and gold cup, defeating the chestnut mare Precious, driven by J. L. Dodge, president of the New York Road Drivers' Association, by less than half a length in each heat. In the first heat of the running race, Riley, the rider of Race Queen, was flung over the fence, as his mount stumbled. Then, with another rider, she won the next heat and race.

NEW YORK (A. L.), 3; PHILADELPHIA (A. L.), 2.-PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 8.—New York wo two games from Philadelphia this afternoon by better all around play. In the first three PHILADELHIA (N. L.), 9; NEW YORK (N. L. & innings of the first game seven hits were made off Waddell, only two of which went New York's winning streak with a loud crash yesterday, this in the first game. The fire and fighting and tabasco of the afternoon was out of the infield. But, pieced out with a wild throw by Waddell, they yielded three concentrated in the first game, a most exciting, runs. In the last six innings the visitors did not make a hit and got but one man to busting outlie, which had as pleasing ingredients sugging and some splendid fielding. The New Yorks were seven runs behind at first. The Philadelphians had their chance to win in the sixth inning. They had one one time, but took the lead by a wonderful run in, and men on third and second with no one out, but the three succeeding bats-men could do nothing. The second game rally, only to lose in the end through poor headwork at the bat.

There were four home runs, two triples and four two-baggers in the game. Taylor was in poor form and was batted into retirement after the fifth inning. Duggleby, after doing well, was exploded in the seventh. Neither Elliott nor Corridon was able to stop the hitting. The Quakers put the leaders out of business with home runs, and, less directly, sharp fielding, in which Donohue was the star.

With two on bases in the third inning, Mctee hit to left centre for a home run. Dahlen's error gave Philadelphia one run in the fifth, and Titus's home run with two on bases brought in three more runs. Titus hit to left and the ball bounced along the base of the stand in an eccentric manner, allowing Titus to get clear around on a hit which did not clear the boundary, something seldom, if ever, seen at the Polo Grounds.

Elliott took first on four balls in the seventh, and Bresnahan followed with a home run into the left field seats. Browne and McGann filed out, but crashing hits by Donlin, Dahlen, Dunn and Gilbert gave three more tallies. Dahlen batted in three runs in the eighth with a three-bagger.

After McGeephad singled for Philadelphia and four two-baggers in the game. Taylor up to the eighth inning, when the indian suc-cumbed to the pressure, seven hits being made off him in the last two innings. The fielding of both teams was sharp and at times brilliant. The scores:

BOSTON (A. L.), 8; WASHINGTON, 2-FIRST GAME. WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—The Bostons captured both games of to-day's double header. The scores:

The fine fielding of Gilbert was a feature of the second game. Hits by Bresnahan and McGann and Donlin's out at first scored Bresnahan in the opening inning. The Quakers would have scored in the fourth had not Dunn blocked Lush at third as the latter was turning that bag for home on Donohue's hit. As it was, Bresnahan's threw in caught Lush at the plate, neither of the two teams apparently being able to see the funny business at third.

Gilbert's bunt, Bowerman being hit and Mathewson's single filled the bases in the fourth. Thomas made a beautiful return of Mathewson's hit, whereupon Booin made a crazy throw to third which allowed Gilbert and Bowerman to score. Bowerman's triple and a fly to right gave New York a run in the sixth. The game was cut short on account of darkness. The score: BOSTON, (A. L.), S; WASHINGTON, 1-SECOND GAME.
